Europe in 1920
On the other side of the Atlantic the moving finger of history writes in characters that will be read by the generations that come after us. It is our privilege to witness at first hand this history in the making. Probably never before has there been such an opportunity to see so much of historical significance as will fall to the portion of those who go abroad this year. Our itineraries are scheduled to include: every part of the Old World that you will want to see. Next tour leaves by S. 9. Mauretania, April 24th.
